EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Secretary of War Baker will speak at Louisville Sept. 29.

Howard Staney, divorced at Owensboro, was married one hour later to another woman.

Massachusetts Federal veterans on Tuesday went to Richmond and returned a Confederate drum captured at Winchester, Va.

Selig had a film this week at the Princess showing Taft and Hughes riding together. Taft was all smiles but Hughes was looking mighty solemn.

If Republicans want to make a safe bet on Hughes let them bet that he will get more electoral votes than Taft received in 1912. He is reasonably sure to do that.

The Court of Appeals convened Monday morning after the summer vacation, Chief Justice Shackelford Miller presiding and Judges Settle, Carroll, Turner, Hurt, Clark and Thomas on the bench.

Harry Sommers, of the Elizabethtown News, playfully intimates that the editor of this paper is without brains. This is possibly true, but it is sometimes better not to have brains than to have them and use them to the wrong purpose.

The Villa band that raided Chihuahua escaped into the mountains. It is claimed that Villa was aided from inside the city and many arrests are following. Gen. Manuel Choa, a Villa follower who recently returned from the United States, was one of those arrested and executed. An order has been issued requiring all civilians to surrender their arms under penalty of death.

Gen. Geo. W. Littlefield, whose interest in the Davis home has been enlisted, was shot from his horse at Mossy Creek, Tenn., in 1863, and so desperately wounded that he went on crutches four years, but eventually recovered. He is now a bank president in Austin, Texas, and is one of the richest men in Texas. Among the old Confederates who were at Fairview Tuesday to meet Gen. Littlefield were Judge W. P. Wanfree, Nat Gaither, Geo. T. Herndon and Chas. F. Jarrett.

A new German policy is beginning to manifest itself since Von Hindenburg took charge. He is making his big fight on the Eastern front in an effort to crush Rumania as Serbia was crushed. It is said that he will leave only enough troops on the Western front to hold their trenches during the winter and try to win a decisive victory in the East. If the Western line is weakened, keep an eye on the French.

MUST HOLD ELECTION

The Paducah Municipal Must Be Fought Over at The Polls.

Frankfort, Ky., September, 20.—The Appellate Court yesterday held that the City of Paducah must hold an election this fall to select a mayor and three commissioners for the offices vacated by the ouster decision of the Appellate Court this spring, and sustains the injunction issued by Circuit Judge Gardner, of Mayfield, mandamus the Circuit Court Clerk to call such election. Gov. Stanley's appointees will serve until their successors are elected.

THE STORK.

W. A. Glass killed a young eagle or fishhawk a few days ago on his farm. It measured 5 feet 3 inches from tip to tip.

WITH SHOCKING SUDDENNESS

Miss Jennie Bell Expires In An Attack of Acute Indigestion.

SHORTLY AFTER RETIRING

Called To Her Brother But Died Before a Doctor Could Arrive.

Miss Jennie Bell, sister of John H. Bell, died very suddenly at their home on East Seventh street Monday night. She had gone to bed about 9 o'clock apparently in her usual health and half an hour later called her brother and told him she was ill. Mr. Bell called a physician over the phone, but she died in a very few minutes, before the doctor arrived.

She suffered an attack of acute indigestion about two weeks ago similar to the fatal one, but she had been able to be down in town the day before.

Miss Bell was 54 years of age and was a daughter of the late John H. Bell, Sr. She had always made her home with her youngest brother. Surviving relatives are the following brothers and sisters: Dr. D. E. Bell, of Gracey; Webb C. Bell, of Indianapolis; Garth Bell, of Louisville; Frank Bell, of San Antonio, Tex.; John H. Bell; Mrs. J. B. Campbell and Miss Addie Bell, of California. Another sister, Mrs. John F. Bible, died several years ago, survived by two daughters.

She was a member of the Christian church and was a devoted and faithful worker in her church, noted for her charitable impulses and goodness of heart.

The funeral services were held at the home at 2:30 p. m., yesterday by Rev. J. S. Halkins, of Elkton. The interment was in Riverside cemetery.

Judge J. B. Campbell, of California, whose wife was a sister of Miss Bell, died on Sept. 16th, and was buried on the day she died.

Conflict With The State Doctors Oct. 24, Caused The Change.

The announcement is made that the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias scheduled to meet here the week of October 24 will be changed to Lexington. The annual meeting of the Kentucky Medical Association will meet here at that time, hence the change for the Knights of Pythias. The doctors originally planned to meet Oct. 17, but changed to a week later when it was thought that was the date for the Knights of Pythias meeting. Confusion in the dates resulted and the change was thought necessary.

Will Soon Promote a Booster Campaign.

The Hopkinsville Business Men's Association held a meeting Monday night and discussed the proposition to organize a booster campaign. It met with much favor and it is almost assured that speakers will be sent out sometime next month in autos to tour the surrounding country and tell about the advantages of Hopkinsville as a trade center.

Gen Mills Dead.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 20.—Major General Albert L. Mills, 62, chief of the division of military affairs, died at his home here Monday after 15 hours' illness of pneumonia. He served with distinction in the Spanish war.

GEN. GEO. W. LITTLEFIELD TEXAS MILLIONAIRE PLEDGES FINANCIAL AID

To Complete The Improvements at Jefferson Davis Memorial Park, in Fairview, and Big Things Are Promised For The Near Future.

GEN. BENNETT H. YOUNG TELLS PLANS

Landscape Artist To Be Secured at Once and Grounds Put in Readiness For a Beautiful Memorial Building.

Gen. Bennett H. Young and Gen. Geo. W. Littlefield, of Austin, Texas, visited the Davis Home at Fairview at ten o'clock Tuesday. They were met by a delegation of Hopkinsville business men, a number of ladies of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and other interested parties. It was a fine day and the visitors, escorted by Col. C. F. Jarrett and Dr. E. S. Stuart, inspected the beautiful tract of 20 acres, enclosed on the two sides facing the highways by a massive stone fence. The other two sides are separated from adjoining property by wire fences. The lot slopes up from the main street in Fairview, lying on both sides of the county line, and the higher or southern end of it is crowned with a pretty grove of trees. About midway of the lot, which is almost square, the visitors selected a site for the proposed memorial. There are three gates in the wall, one for a driveway entering on the north and a similar one on the west, near the southern corner. A small gate is in the northwest corner. It is proposed to get a landscape gardener to lay out the grounds, plan walks and driveways and grade the low places in the front of the lot. To do this a depression back of where the memorial will stand will be deepened and made into a pretty little lake. Some rocks appearing here and there will be removed and utilized for making concrete walks. The two visitors made a short visit to the Fairview school near by, while the crowd was assembling. At 10:30 the people present assembled in front of the house still on the grounds purchased from Dr. C. B. Woolsey and standing on the porch Gen. Young introduced Gen. Littlefield as a gallant veteran 74 years old who was a multi-millionaire and deeply interested in the Davis Home.

Gen. Littlefield said he was determined to erect a suitable memorial to the Great Leader who was born on the historic spot. He asked that the people of Christian and Todd counties do what they could to help in the work and that it would be put through in a creditable manner. He did not say to what extent he would go in his speech, but he said privately that he would give $2 for every $1 given by others.

Gen. Young followed him and paid an eloquent tribute to Mr. Davis and told of the trouble encountered in getting the park into the present shape and said big plans would soon be put through that would make the park more beautiful than the Lincoln park because it was a more beautiful spot to begin with. He did not go into details, but said work would not be delayed, since he had Gen. Littlefield's backing. He called on the latter gentleman to say if he wasn't behind him and he smilingly answered that he was.

Gen. Julian Carr, of North Carolina, was to have been present but was prevented by other engagements. He too, is a man of great wealth. Gen. Young has interested still other men of means in the completion of the Home.

Gen. Littlefield was compelled to leave at 11 o'clock to catch a train home, as his wife is quite ill. He left amid the cheers of those present. The ladies of the Fairview chapter, U. D. C., and other neighbors provided a basket dinner for all who were present and the lunch was enjoyed at 11 o'clock after Gen. Littlefield had left. The exercises closed with short speeches by Claude R. Clark and Chas. M. Meacham, who thanked the ladies for their hospitality and discussed the pride the community should feel in the proposed improvements.

Gen. Young and Gen. Littlefield arrived in the city Monday evening and went to Elkton where they spent the night with Dr. McKinney, and a reception was held in their honor. They came out from Elkton to Fairview, the halfway point, in a car and then came on to Hopkinsville to catch the I. C. train south. Gen. Young returning to Louisville from Princeton.

HUGHES HARD ON LABOR

Says the Adamson Bill Was a Surrender To Force.

Renewing his attack on the Administration, Charles E. Hughes contended in a speech at Springfield, Ill., Tuesday night that passage of the Adamson eight-hour law was a "surrender to force," and challenged the statement of Representative Adamson that an emergency existed. He said that the measure related solely to an increase in wages. He said: "We have an unjustifiable attempt to use public sentiment with respect to an eight-hour working day in order to justify a bill which does not provide an eight-hour work day, but relates solely to an increase in wages. We have seen the choice of what seemed to be the easier way, which escaped the necessity of a determined stand for principle. We have seen what appeared to be the consideration of immediate political expediency at the expense of public welfare."

BULL MOOSE VOTE SPLIT

Bare Majority Favors Republican Over Democrat For Governor.

New York, Sept. 20.—A close contest between Gov. Chas. S. Whitman, Republican, and Judge Samuel Seabury, Democrat, for the Progressive endorsement for the gubernatorial nomination was indicated by the early returns from the State-wide primaries. The indications were that Whitman would be the victor.

The Progressive vote aroused more interest among State and national leaders than any other feature of the primary, for it was regarded as giving some light on how the strength of the party would be divided in the national election. A majority of the Progressive leaders of the State supported Whitman's candidacy. The leaders of the so-called insurgent wing who gave their aid to Judge Seabury, professed to be more than satisfied with the result.

William M. Chandler, Republican, and William F. McCombs, Democrat, apparently were assured of the nominations for United States Senator.

BLACKMAILERS ARRAIGNED

Have Enough Evidence To Convict Without Exposing Wealthy Victims.

TWO MORE ARE ARRESTED

Chicago, Sept. 20.—While federal authorities prepared to arraign for a preliminary hearing, seven members of an alleged blackmail gang who used the Mann act as their chief weapon, detectives fortified with information obtained from two alleged members of the gang who confessed, made arrests in other cities and spread a dragnet for H. C. Woodward, sought as director-in-chief of the syndicate.

Hinton G. Clabaugh, of the United States department of justice declared he had secured sufficient evidence to convict the gang without exposing the names of their wealthy victims. These victims, principally wealthy men whose flirtations with pretty women led them into traps from which they escaped only on payment of large sums, will be shielded from publicity except as a last resort, it is said.

The evidence secured in two cases already generally known authorities said together with a mass of incriminating evidence found in the raid on the apartment where the seven were arrested will be presented to the federal commissioner.

TWO WERE ARRESTED.

Developments in the case reported to New York of Frank Crocker, alleged former member of the gang, who is said to have confessed to a part in the swindling of Mrs. Regina Klipper, of Philadelphia, and the arrest at Philadelphia of William Butler held there in connection with an alleged blackmail plot against the late Mrs. Susan G. S. Winpenny.

Clabaugh also revealed the source of the information that led to the raid. He said that "Dick" Barret and Edward J. Thompson, two members of the syndicate had confessed. They probably will be given immunity. Their revelations, said Clabaugh, were replete with stories of shrewd blackmail, new and clever race track swindles and other ruses with which members of the gang, beautiful women and debonaire, handsome men, bled their victims.

BONDS TOTAL $100,000.

The bonds asked for the seven total approximately $100,000. The men refused to talk.

Mrs. Helen Evers, said by federal authorities to have been used as the "lure" in the bogus Mann act cases, stamped her feet and said there is not a word of truth in the charges.

Mrs. Frances Chapman said nothing. Mrs. Evers said Mrs. Chapman's arrest was an outrage—that she was visiting at the apartment.

THOSE UNDER ARREST.

Among those under arrest and the bail they will be required to give are: Edward Donahue, alias "Doc" Donahue, $25,000.

Mrs. Helen Evers, alias Mrs. Geo. W. Brown, $25,000.

Henry Russell, alias H. J. Russell, $25,000.

Mrs. Edward Donahue, $5,000.

James Christian, alias James Roberts, $5,000.

George Bland, alias Joseph Pearl, $5,000.

Mrs. Frances Allen, alias Mrs. Frances Chapman, $5,000.

Elaborate opium smoking layouts, expensive silks and satin gowns and dresses, costly furs and jewelry were found in one of the elegantly furnished apartments in which the arrests were made.

Fifty suits of clothes hung in the closet of Henry Russell. A mass of alleged incriminating evidence—letters, telegrams and other papers were

TEUTONS HAVE AN INNING

Success Is Claimed in Heavy Battles in Galicia, Dobrudja and Transylvania.

TAKE MANY PRISONERS

Bad Weather in France Limits Its Operations on Somme to Artillery Duels.

London, Sept. 20.—Although there is a pause in the violent infantry fighting in the Somme region of France, due to the inclement weather, heavy battles are in progress on the eastern front in Russia, Galicia, Transylvania and Rumania and on the southern front in Macedonia.

Along the Stokhod river in Russia, the Germans and Austro-Hungarians have taken the offensive against the Russians and according to Berlin, near Zareczze have crossed the river in pursuit of their retreating foe and have captured 31 officers and 2,511 men and 17 machine guns. Here four lines of Russian trenches were penetrated by the Teutonic allies, says Vienna.

In Galicia a counter attack by the forces of the Central powers, along the Narayuvka river southeast of Lemberg, brought a further success to their arms and resulted in the capture of an additional 4,200 men.

In the Ludowa region of the Carpathians the Russians have gained some new positions in the fighting among the snow clad peaks.

REVERSES FOR RUMANIANS.

The war chancelleries at Berlin Sofia and Vienna, record victories for the Teutonic allies over the Rumanians in Transylvania and Dobrudja.

In France and Belgium there has been violent artillery activities on the Somme and Verdun front and around Dixmude. A German attack on British trenches near Martinpuich, north of the Somme, was repulsed. Berlin admits the relinquishment to the entente forces of trenches of Ginchy and near Combles, which had been previously demolished by the entente artillery.

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Saloniki, dated September 18, Monday, says: "The Serbian successes in the Florina region continue. They have captured Krushegrad, eight kilometres and Neobazi, ten kilometres northwest of Gornichevo while the Serbian cavalry has reached Rosna and still is advancing."

HEAVY DOCKET FOR COURT

Nearly Seven Hundred Cases to be Called at Fall Term.

The docket for the approaching term of Circuit Court has been made up and contains 678 cases. They are, as follows: Commonwealth 125; appearances common law, 49; continued common law, 89; appearances equity, 96; continued equity, 319. There are three murder cases on the docket. The case of Otho Chiles and Sarah Bell McReynolds is set for the fourth day of the term; that of Ernest Wilson for the fifth day and the Taylor case for the 7th day.

Turks have granted a third request of the U. S. to send aid to suffering Armenians, having refused twice.

found, officials said. Operations of the band are declared to have extended from coast to coast. Men and women alike were victims. Persons of wealth were the objects in every case. Five wealthy and socially prominent members of Chicago's society are declared to have been blackmailed out of $20,000. Their names are withheld. Persons also are declared to have been fleeced in New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia.

RARE ARABIAN HORSES FEATURE OF SPECTACLE

DERRISH, The Blooded Animal Imported By Ringling Bros., to Take Part in "Cinderella."

When the Ringling Brothers' stage managers were holding the initial rehearsals of the mammoth fairyland production, "Cinderella," they sent for the finest horses in all the circus stables. But, splendid as were these thoroughbreds, not one could be found that was thought to be entirely suitable for the prince of the tale who,
 as everyone knows, takes "Cindrella"
 to wed.

There were hundreds of steeds admirably suited to the requirements of the ladies and gentlemen of the royal train but it was argued that the princes' horse should be the most striking ever seen in a spectacle. Thereupon word was cabled to the Ringling Brothers' European representatives to secure the finest Arabian steed that money could buy. In reply came the horse Derrish. Accompanying the beautiful animal was his pedigree written in Arabic. Translated, it reads:

"In the name of God, the merciful!
 The cause of the present writing is that we witness that the white horse,

Derrish of Mahomet Bey, is the first breed of Nedgdee horses, whose mother is the white mare, Hadha the famous, and whose father is the bay horse Dahrouge of the horses of the tribe Benihaled. We testify on our conscience and fortune that he is the breed concerning which the prophet said: "The true runners when they run strike fire; they grant prosperity until the day of judgment. We testify what is known and God knows we are true witnesses." Six signatures verify this pedigree.

When the Ringling Brothers exhibit here Derrish will be seen twice.
 First on the vast stage on which the fairyland spectacle is produced, and again during the progress of the high-school and menage horse numbers.
 The riding acts will embrace more than fifty different horses, but the spectator will probably have no difficulty in locating Derrish, for he is the most superb animal of them all. The circus will be in Hopkinsville, Saturday, Sept. 30.

RELICS OF ANOTHER DAY

At Present There Are Few Horse Car Lines to Be Found in the United States.

Horse cars still are operated in at least two American cities, New York and Middletown, Ohio, according to the Popular Science Monthly. Tiny, low, short, and mounted on a single truck, these cars were built to haul about twenty persons. Today they often are crowded with two to three times that number and the horses are sorely pressed to draw the load.

When the Middletown horse car line went into bankruptcy several years ago a junk dealer bought it for $400. His profits have been more than 300 per cent a year, and if he were to pull up his tracks and sell them and his equipment, he could realize many times his original investment.

Recently an order has been given by the public service commission of New York that the horse cars must go. The reason for the demise of those municipal curios is that the picturesque equipment of 1860 cannot meet the traffic demands of the 1916 public.

Good Advice.

"So you're going in for public speaking?"

"Yes."

"Well, make up your mind that you can say more in half an hour than you can in two hours."

An Indication.

"Does he believe in the ultimate success of the suffrage movement?"
"I don't know, but I heard him telling his daughter that she got all her lessons she might some day be president."

A Problem.

"China produces more hemp than any other nation in the world, they say."

"Then how was it its undesirable population got such a big start?"

BIG LYCEUM FOR COMING SEASON

Same Has Endorsement of the Ministers, H. M. B. A., and Clubs, and Others.

The coming season is a Redpath course, under the Tabernacle management is to consist of eight of the best attractions on the Redpath list. The ladies of the Eastern Star lodge, also the ladies of the Methodist church, have begun an active canvass for the sale of season tickets. The prices of tickets will be as follows: Adult tickets $2.00, student tickets $1.00, colored persons $1.00, with no extra charge for reserving same, reserve the ticket once for the entire season. The date for this reservation of tickets is Oct. 10th, at the Anderson-Fowler Drug Store. The course will consist of two strong lecturers, five big musical numbers, and one monologist and entertainer. An attractive four page herald has been gotten out, especially covering the big course we are to have this season in Hopkinsville, and these are now being sent all over the city.

The following numbers constitute the course:

The Chicago Orchestral Choir, a large brass orchestra, also a string and reed orchestra, are accompanied by Mme. Helene Cafarelli, soprano of the Chicago Grand opera. This is the largest musical organization put out by Redpath this season and you will regret it if you fail to hear them. The orchestra is composed of solo musicians, selected by Bohumir Kryl, and are led by his brother Mr. Frank Kryl. Chancellor Geo. H. Bradford will lecture, his subjects America's Destiny; Good Good Government vs. Good Politics; Riches of a Republic and the Errors of an Empire.

Chancellor Bradford was rated the best lecturer on the Redpath eight day Chautauquas in 1916, all over the U. S. and will be well received in Hopkinsville. The Killarney Girls and Rita Rich, the program is a story of human life, of the great wholesome men and women of Ireland. It touches the heartstrings of every one, and is dedicated to the Irish people of each community.

The only number ever heard in Hopkinsville before is Everett Kemp, who will be pleasantly remembered in his rendering of "That Printer of Udell's." This time Mr. Kemp will give Sevenoaks, If I were King, or The Music Master. The Musical Guardsmen, six young college men, are really two companies in one big programme, instrumentalists, vocalists, they hit the high spots of musical entertainment. William Rainey Bennett will give one of the following lectures, that have made him famous: The Man Who Can; The Master thought; Machines and Millionaires. His entertainment is a series of song, story and solid substance, mingled with the touch of a master. The Rob Roy Quartette, (and what course is complete without a good first class male quartette) presents the romance and music of Scotland in song and story, an attractive feature of their programme is the musical drama "The White Cockade" dealing with a romantic episode in the life of Prince

"Goodnight Corns!" We Use "Gets-It!"

3 Drops in 2 Seconds. That's All. "GETS-IT" Does the Rest. Never Fails.

"Really, I never could see how some few people use the most difficult and painful way they can find to get rid of corns. They'll wrap their toes up with bandages into a package that fills their shoes full of feet and makes corns so painful they've got to walk sideways and wrinkle up their faces. Or they use salves that eat right into the toe and make it raw and sore, or they'll use plasters that make the corns bulge, or pick and gouge at their corns and make the toes bleed. Funny, isn't it? "GETS-IT" is the simple, modern wonder for corns. Just put 3 drops on. It dries instantly. No pain, fuss or trouble. The corn, callus or wart loosens and comes off. Millions use nothing else. "GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price, by B. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Hopkinsville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by L. L. Elgin

Charles Stewart, in which some of the most beautiful of the Jacobite songs are given. The course will be opened by the Ada Roach Company of four ladies and two gentlemen in "The Heart of the Immigrant;" this delightful company, have delighted the largest audiences, all over the country, and are rated in the Lyceum journals as one of the best on the Redpath list.

Good Piece of Land For Sale!

If not sold privately before, I will on the First Monday in October offer at Public Sale in Hopkinsville, at the Courthouse door, between 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., 150 acres of land, it being a part of my Newstead Farm. Said land extends back to and is bounded on the East by the lands of R. H. McGaughey, and on the South by A. M. Henry and on the West by E. M. Jones. On this land is a good tenant's house of two rooms, a good tobacco barn, with shed, having a capacity of 10 acres; Hog house, two good cisterns and 30 acres of good timber. There are 50 acres of tobacco and corn land for good timber. There are 50 acres of tobacco and corn land for good timber. There are 50 acres of tobacco and corn land for good timber. For fertility and location, there is not a more desirable tract of land in Christian county. Added to it is everything advanced cultivation can give. In 500 yards of one corner is a public school and church and in about the same distance of other corner is a Railroad Station and store, with Rural Route and Telephone.

CO. D'S TRIP TO MEXICO.

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 16, 1916.

Editor Kentuckian:

While here in my tent I have just been thinking about ourselves and how we all enjoyed our trip down here. No one can imagine how many different things were "sprung" upon the soldier boys or different sights. One boy was watching out the window and when we came by a big field of cotton he said: "Run here boys and look what a big field of okra."

The boys never did think we would get to come down here. You could often hear some one say: "We will go nowhere but Hopkinsville, I never will believe we will go away down on the border." It went on this way until the orders came in, and when Capt. Stites told us we would leave in the next 24 hours for the border, the boys all seemed somewhat surprised, and at once went around and told all their best friends farewell and also went over to the Y. M. C. A. and sent letters and cards to their sweethearts and friends at home, telling them they were Mexico bound. With some shedding tears and some full of joy, we all pulled out of Newport, Ky., Sept. 29th, arriving at Ft. Bliss Sept. 4th, which is 8 miles from El Paso.

We made our first stop at Bowling Green. All got off there and were mustered in on the pay roll. Then we came on to Nashville, Tenn. All got off there and took a small hike for exercise, taking in most of the city. Our next stop was at Mobile, Ala., where we took another hike around in the city, then we came on to New Orleans, La., arriving there about 4 o'clock and laid over there about 3 hours taking on ice, bread and water and letting the boys run around over the city to see the sights. New Orleans and its surroundings are a very beautiful sight. We all had the opportunity of seeing the Gulf of Mexico, stretching as far as eye could see. Some of the boys said surely the sky must run down in the water. Ships sailing and fishermen out fishing could be seen all out across the big waters. We crossed the Mississippi river there and the Southern Pacific railroad took us and carried us on our journey.

We traveled for several hundred miles and came to Houston, Tex. Here we all got what was very badly needed, a shower bath. We marched through the main part of Houston to the Y. M. C. A. There we found our shower bath waiting for us, and also all the lemonade we could drink and post cards were given us to write to the dear ones we left behind. After this was all over we marched back to our train and started on our journey, leaving Houston Friday at 5 p. m. and arrived at Ft. Bliss Monday at 1:30 a. m. After day-break we all fell out and got busy unloading and pitching tents. We were not here over five minutes until some of the boys had captured a horny toad and were chasing the lizzards and snakes.

This is a fine healthy country. All the objection we find of it is the sand blowing up and filling our eyes.

The boys were at first afraid to go to bed for sleep, as they had been told that the snakes were so bad here that they would come in your tent and get up on your cot and snooze with you. But that scare has blown over. Several of the boys have horny toads and snakes for pets, but I have none, if any one should ask you.

The mountain scenery around here is very beautiful. Some of the boys said the first time they noticed them they had to lie down flat of their backs to see the tops of them. Lieut. Armstrong and several others went up on the top of the mountains last Sunday, at least they say they went up to the top. I am sure it would be a big job for a small man, so I am in doubt about our Lieut. going to the top.

We all have lots of fun down here. If we didn't I am sure we would have several to bury in the sand. Thursday the Third Regiment drew their mules and horses. The boys in the companies had to go and bring them over to camp. Company D was one of the companies that had to go. W. T. Perkins was right in for this sport, so he got a nice looking horse to bring over. Just as soon as W. T. got on his broncho, he was next seen lying in the sand. Back on him he went again and was thrown the third time, but W. T. never did give up, and brought his broncho right in and was riding him when he landed here at this post.

Company D boys are getting along fine and doing good work. I think what most of them are longing for is the order to break camp and go home.

Those who have friends and loved ones in Company D should write to them, for there is nothing more appreciated than a letter from home. When the mail comes in the boys all come running and if they do not get a letter they always say: "I know something must be wrong for I have not had a letter in 2 or 3 days."

Here's hoping we will see you all soon.

Yours truly,

F. S. C.

Workings of a Watch.

The roller jewel of a watch each day makes 432,000 impacts against the fork, or 157,680,000 in a year, or 3,153,000,000 in 20 years. A force of one horsepower would run 270,000 watches.

WHAT OF FAMILY PORTRAITS?

One Writer Is Bold Enough to Question Their Real Value to the Present Generation.

One of the most envied accomplishments of high birth in the past is becoming almost universal. Almost everyone nowadays is possessed of family portraits.

That is they are possessed of accurate delineations of the features of their more immediate ancestors. Old photograph albums tell middle-aged men and women what their grandfathers were like before they grew old, and young people can study the clothes, faces and deportment of their great-grandparents and great-aunts and great-uncles.

We all have pictures of the block from whence we were hewn—an advantage reserved at one time for chips of greater distinction.

The fact ought not to be without its effect upon character—if the heirlooms of family tradition are of any value.

As in the case of jewels, there is something fictitious about the store which is set by them. Nevertheless the fascination of such heirlooms is eternal.—New York Telegraph.

Jewish Holiday Season.

Sundown Wednesday, September 27, will mark the beginning of the Jewish high holidays. These holidays of deep religious significance, will commence with the feast of Rosh Hashanah, or New Year. The New Year will be followed by ten days of penitence, which reach their climax in the way of Atonement, October 7. "On the New Year all the inhabitants of the earth pass before Him as sheep before a shepherd." In these words the ancient Jewish law book refers to the significance of this day. It is a day of judgment when the sins Hashanah, or New Year. The New and the merits of all men are weighed by the Divine Judge. The Talmud tells that in this annual New Year's judgment scene three books lie open before the most High.

ADVANTAGES OF FRUIT CRATE

Quickly Opened and Fruit Left Exposed for Sale in Attractive and Pleasing Manner.

The chief advantages claimed for this crate are that it can be quickly opened and that when opened it leaves the fruit exposed for sale in an attractive manner. The chief feature is the slot near the top of the end pieces;

Fruit Crate.

A slight prying motion with any suitable tool breaks the wood at the ends of the slot and allows the top to be removed.

The bottom and sides are stiff, but the top is flexible. The fruit is packed in the crate upside down, the bottom being the last part closed. The cases are shipped on their sides to facilitate ventilation and to prevent crushing down the flexible top.—Independent Farmer.

OBJECT OF THINNING FRUIT

Attention Is Called to Much Neglected Important Duty—Incise Grapes
in Paper Sacks.

Thinning is so much neglected, and yet so important, that it is well to call attention to it.

If one has any doubts upon this matter, let him take two trees of the same variety of peach or pear, and from one remove half of three-fourths of the fruit, and upon the other let all the fruit grow. When the fruit is ripe, market the crop of each tree, keeping a correct account of all the expenses, and see which tree has paid the most.

One bushel of choice fruit, carefully packed in clean half-bushel baskets, will frequently sell for more than two or even three bushels of ordinary fruit of the same kind. Peaches, apples and grapes grown for the best markets should be thinned when fruit is one-third grown, the trees properly sprayed in season and the trees kept cultivated or mulched.

For exhibition, remove fully half the fruit from the trees, water freely in dry weather. Grapes should be inclosed in paper sacks.

TIME FOR PICKING BERRIES

Small Fruits Are Unmarketable When Overripe—Gather When of Full Color and Flavor.

Unlike some of the tree fruits, berries must not be picked when under-ripe. They are unmarketable when overripe. Pick when of full color and flavor, yet firm.

If gathering of the fruit takes place so that the vines are relieved of their ripe fruit in the cool of the day, leaving the plants nothing to do but to ripen their remaining fruit when warmth and sunshine will hasten the process, the full crop will be sooner brought to maturity. The berries are better for being gathered in the cool of the day, but when, as is often the case, they must be gathered when warm from the sun, they should be taken as soon as possible to a cool, breezy shaded place. The packing shed should be ample enough to shelter all crates of berries until ready for shipment. A breeze is helpful when the fruit is dewy but a hot, dry wind will mar
the freshness of the fruit.

PROTECT TREE FROM BORERS

Application of White Lead and Linseed Oil Will Keep Female From Laying Eggs.

Apple trees may be protected from the flat-headed borer by painting the trunks with a heavy application of paint that will remain unbroken for two or three months and keep the female from laying her eggs. Pure white lead and raw linseed oil, mixed rather thick, will not injure the trees, when applied to young, smooth bark, and form a protective coat during the egg-laying season.

Before painting, however, the earth should be removed from the base of the tree for a depth of from three to four inches. The surface of the trunk thus exposed should be first scraped and painted and the earth then replaced. This is necessary, for the beetle occasionally lays her eggs in the soil instead of above ground.

LINENS GETTING SCARCER.

Summing up the linen situation recently, one of the principal importers to this market spoke this way:
"Business is as active as it ever is at this time of the year, when everyone is trying to reduce stocks as far as possible before taking inventory, and orders are placed only for goods that are really needed to meet some special demand or to fill out a broken line. Flax continues to get scarcer and dearer as time goes on,
and linens of all kinds are also getting scarcer and dearer. This will continue, at least, until the war ends.
In many cases merchandise is still being let out in this market below the cost of replacement, and this will be done as long as present methods of averaging up buying and selling prices are retained."—New York Times.

DESERVING DEVOTION.

Isabel—Are you sure you really love me?

Arthur—Dearest, I would be president of Mexico for your sake.

MAJOR AND MINOR DEFEATS.

Knicker—A defeat is when the enemy drives you back home.

Outlate—Or else when you don't dare to go home.

INTREPID.

"We are raffling kisses. Will you take a chance?"

"Sure; I ain't afraid of germs."—
Louisville Courier-Journal.

THEIR PARADOX.

"Good roads are unique in one respect."

"What is that?"

"They seldom have a walk-over."

THE YELLOW KIND.

Maud—I do so admire a man of mettle.

Marie—So do I. The more gold
he has the better.

FARM ANIMALS

CUTTING THE LAMBS' TAILS

Nothing Serious About Simple Operation—Should Be Done With Pair of Hot Pincers.

At this season of the year there is nothing serious about the simple operation of taking off the tails of lambs, and of castrating them as well. The former should be done with hot pincers made for the purpose, which sear the wound, precluding infection from knife, and at the same time preventing bleeding. When tails are taken off in this way, writes George P. Williams in Stockman and Farmer, we have observed that the lamb notices the operation much less than when the knife or chisel is used. Castration is best accomplished by first cutting the lower half or more of the scrotum squarely off with a sharp knife; if less be cut off difficulty is experienced in taking hold of the testicles and the lamb is caused unnecessary agony by reason of the unusual pinching and working with the testicles before they can be drawn out.

When tails are taken from late lambs, the stub should be well girdled with pine tar to prevent the work of flies; but this is by no means a sure preventive, and very often the eggs may be found to have been deposited regardless of the most careful precaution. These lambs should be watched till the wound be healed. In case maggots be found, catch the lamb and pour in gasoline; this will not harm or hurt the lamb, and is sure death to the worms.

Stallion Should Be in Good Physical Condition Before Beginning of Breeding Season.

A stallion that is not fit to work is not fit to sire work horses, is the opinion of J. S. Montgomery of the animal husbandry division of the Minnesota College of Agriculture. "The horse should be in good physical condition before the beginning of the breeding season," he says. "Plenty of exercise should be provided. If it is impossible to work the horse, a large paddock should be arranged where he may play in all kinds of weather.

"A clean, roomy, light and well-ventilated boxstall should be used for him.

Purebred Sire.

It is best to have the stall where the horse is near to other horses.

"In feeding the stallion for the season," Mr. Montgomery cautions, "it should be remembered that a thin animal is just as bad off as one that is too fat. The horse should be in good flesh, preferably on the gain, to open the season. The flesh should be put on by a ration free from excessive corn or other heating and fattening feeds. Oats make a good grain ration, but may be advantageously supplemented by one-fifth—by weight—of wheat or bran. A little oil meal, up to 8 per cent, is also desirable. Bright hay should be fed at the rate of a pound a day to each hundred pounds the horse weighs. If the stallion is being worked, he should have a pound and half a day to each hundred pounds. The clover fed it should be limited to one-half the ordinary hay ration, for the excess of protein in it overworks the kidneys and is hard to eliminate from the system."

Mr. Montgomery believes that less pampering of the purebred sires would give more vigorous horses.

TROUBLE WITH FARM HORSES

Influenza or Distemper Can Be Prevented, Says Nebraska College of Agriculture.

When influenza or distemper breaks out among the farm horses, the loss from lessened working efficiency is sometimes heavy. The Nebraska college of agriculture says that this disease can very largely be prevented if the horses are vaccinated with influenza antitoxin as soon as the first case appears. Two doses should be given about six days apart. Ask your veterinarian about it.

WAR! What Is It — All About?

HAS the whole world gone stark mad over a very foolish and trivial question? Are swords rattling, cannon rumbling, mailed armour glistening just because Russia wanted to show her love for the little brother—Serbia? Tear aside the curtain of Europe's politics and see the grim and sinister game of chess that is being played. See upon what a slim, yet desperate, excuse the sacred lives of millions are being sacrificed. Read the history of the past one hundred years, as written by some of the greatest authorities the world has ever known, and learn the naked, shameful truth. Just to get you started as a Review of Reviews subscriber, we make you this extraordinary offer. We will give to you

FREE—"Europe at War"

A big book and over 300 pages, size 10 x 7 inches, handsomely and durably bound in cloth, containing the dramatic history of the great events leading up to the present time: over 50 important and timely special articles, by experts on the different phases of the conflict; hundreds of graphic pictures, portraits, photographs, diagrams, specially drawn war maps, illuminating statistical records, copies of official documents and diplomatic messages exchanged between the powers—a clear, vivid, accurate, permanent, interesting and valuable record—a record which once seen you will not willingly be without. Europe's past and present are here dramatically pictured and presented. Hundreds of illustrations graphically tell their own stories. More fascinating than any romance, here is a history so vivid, so dramatic, so stirring, so fascinating, so realistic, so wonderfully presented, so thrillingly told that it leaves an ineffable impression.

MEN IN MIND IN HOPKINSVILLE

Prominent Factors in The Busy Life of the Pearl
City.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH NO. 113.

Contractor Who Was Born In Clarksville But Preferred Hopkinsville.

L. E. ADWELL.

We are dealing this issue with another member of the large and growing "Clarksville colony" in Hopkinsville. A large number of the city's prominent business men and useful citizens lived in Clarksville until they learned of the better opportunities afforded in a larger and more prosperous city. One of these is L. E. Adwell, the tinner.

Lawrence Elmore Adwell was born Sept. 7, 1877, in the city of Clarksville, and when he grew up learned the tinning business from the ground up. Starting in as a boy, he served several years as an apprentice in one of the local shops and at 21 years of age had become a skillful workman in his line. In 1898 he came to Hopkinsville to take charge of the tinning department of the contracting firm of Dagg & Richards, afterwards J. H. Dagg. When their plant was merged into that of the Hopkinsville Lumber Co., Mr. Adwell went with the new corporation as general manager of the departments of heating, tinning and plumbing, putting into the business his earnings of several years. The Hopkinsville Lumber Co. was not a successful venture and when it retired from business Mr. Adwell and his brother formed the firm of Adwell Bros. and went into business on their own hook. The brother died six years ago and the successful business is now conducted under the name of L. E. Adwell.

With shops located on Virginia street, between Eighth and Ninth, Mr. Adwell is attentive to his rapidly expanding business. To the work of tin contracting he has added heating plants, roof painting and general repairing. He is a busy man looking after the contracts that come to him, many of them over a wide scope of country. He makes a specialty of country work and has built up an enviable reputation by the reliability and promptness with which he attends to contracts entrusted to him. By hard work and honest dealing, he has put his business on a solid and expanding basis.

Mr. Adwell is a member of several fraternal orders, the Masons, Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellows. In the last named he has filled the chair of Noble Grand.

He was married 20 years ago and lives with his family, consisting of his wife and four children, on West Seventh street. He has a son old enough to be a valuable assistant in his father's business.

No Relief in Sight.

Washington, Sept. 20.—The Executive Committee of the Newsprint Manufacturers' Association notified the Federal Trade Commission Monday that it was ready to meet a committee of newspaper publishers to discuss means of regulating the distribution of white paper so that small publishers may suffer no injustice and may be relieved of the prospect of suspending publication, which many of them are said to face because of the papers' shortage.

A suggestion to the Trade Commission that manufacturing machines now engaged on other grades of paper be transferred temporarily to newsprint was rejected by the Executive Committee as impracticable, and to a further proposal that factories be operated on Sundays to relieve the shortage the committee replied that efforts to induce labor unions to sanction Sunday operation had failed.

An Estill county woman had a tumor removed that weighed 55 pounds.

WHY PRICES ARE GETTING HIGHER

Unprecedented Conditions in Business World Growing
Out of War.

DEMAND EXCEEDS SUPPLY

Prospects Are That The High Level Has Not Yet been Reached.

Conditions existing in the markets of the country, and especially in the dry goods trade, are correctly stated in a letter sent out by Forest Ferguson, of the Carleton-Ferguson Dry Goods company of St. Louis recently to the salesmen of that company. The letter as taken from the New York Journal of Commerce is as follows:

"If you are beginning to feel that prices on merchandise are getting high, stop and consider the following concrete facts:

"The United States government report on the cotton crop issued Sept. 1, shows the lowest conditions ever reported for that month, and indicates nothing short of a crop disaster, with prices more than two and one-half times what they were two years ago.

"In addition to the high cost and difference of labor, every item that enters into the manufacture of goods costs from 10 to 1,000 per cent more than formerly, and still greater advances in the costs of dyestuffs and bleaching and finishing.

"On account of the generally prosperous conditions of the country, with labor fully employed at high wages, the home consumption of goods is beyond all precedent, and demand far exceeds the supply. In our own domestic department the sales for last month were more than three and one-half times. Last August and September will still be larger.

"The abnormal foreign demand for all kinds of American goods, clothing, shoes and other articles, increasing every day since the outbreak of the war, has reached enormous proportions, and comes from all parts of the world.

"An astonishingly large proportion of our cotton crop is now used in the manufacture of automobiles and tires, and since the war many millions of yards of cotton cloths are now being substituted for burlaps, which are unattainable in anything like sufficient quantities.

"There are no large stock of cotton goods anywhere. On the contrary there are not enough goods to go around, and apparently we are for once face to face with a real dry goods famine.

"Prices on cotton and cotton goods have scarcely yet reached the high level of other commodities like steel, copper, wheat, corn, wool, leather, paper, etc.

"Another contributing cause for high prices is the ease and abundance of money in this country, amounting practically to 'gold inflation,' and all prices and values must be considered from an entirely different basis now.

"With the whole world turned upside down by the wars I would not try to predict how much further prices will advance; but, considering all the conditions, we should not be surprised at any level of prices and as a matter of fact, the only wonder is that prices have not gone much higher."

PUBLIC SALE

W. H. Draper, Administrator and surviving partner of J. A. Draper, deceased, will close out at public auction on the farm of Miss Frances Summers, known as the Coleman place, near Fidelity, this county, all of the live stock, tools and implements that were used in their extensive farming operations. Included in the sale will be a number of good horses and mules and 75 to 100 head of fine red Polled cattle. Date

THURSDAY, SEPT. 28, 1916,

To begin at 10 o'clock a. m., and continue throughout the day, except 30 minutes for lunch. There will be meat and bread on the grounds.

A. S. TRIBBLE, Auctioneer.

BEGINNING.

"Did you ever make a start on that automobile you intended to buy?"

"In a small way, only. We've laid in a thermos bottle, which my wife says will be a great convenience on our long tours if we ever get an automobile."—Puck.

UPWARD.

"You should think of higher things."

"I do. I am entirely unable to keep my mind off the price of meat and gasoline."

HARROWING DETAIL.

"I hear young Braggit rose rapidly in the West."

"So he did—at the end of a rope."

PARADOXICALLY ACTIVE.

"So Villa is very much alive after all."

"Yes, and shows it by being dead in earnest."

SURE ENOUGH.

Excited Sailor—I tell you, I saw the shark's fin.

Bystander—Then why didn't you keep it up and see his finish?

SUN BROTHERS SHOW TO-DAY

Will Give Two Exhibitions on Ford Property on North Main Street.

Sun Brothers' World's Progressive shows will exhibit in Hopkinsville to-day, giving two performances, afternoon and night. This season the show offers many new attractions, notably among them being Herr Klotz's wonderful tango and pantomimic elephants in one of the greatest trained animal acts ever offered for review in America. The exhibition of beautiful high school horses, the new clown college, the Panama wild beast exhibit and many other attractions deserve special mention also. The show is practically all new for the present tour, all new acts and performers and a coterie of many novelties in the trained animal line. The performances here will be given on the Ford property on North Main street.

Indications are that a large crowd will attend the show. Performances will be given rain or shine.

Church Convention.

The eighty-fourth annual convention of the Christian churches of Kentucky is being held in Winchester, where arrangements have been made to accommodate 1,000 guests.
